

ROSSER & McCARTHY, Publishers and Proprietors, TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

CHRISTMAS.

"It came upon the midnight clear, That glorious song of old, From angels bending near the earth To touch their harps of gold: 'Peace on earth, good will to men From heaven's all gracious King; The world in solemn stillness lay To hear the angels sing.'"

The Holly system of water works, just finished at Lexington, has been thoroughly tested and pronounced a success.

A FINE music box raffled at Millwood, Friday, by W. O. Cord, was won by G. F. Chinn. The lucky number was thirty-three.

The protracted meeting at Helena, by Revs. Sims and Peebles, closed on the 17th instant with forty-four additions to the church.

In distributing your holiday favors don't forget to put into the stocking of the BULLETIN the little sum you owe on account of subscription.

CARDS are out announcing the marriage of Rev. F. S. Pollitt and Miss Emma Goggin, at the Methodist Church, Washington, Thursday, December 25th.

The quarterly meeting of the Confederate Survivors' Association will be held at the council chamber next Saturday evening at seven o'clock. All the members of the association are invited to be present.

Mrs. ELLEN BROPHY, wife of Mr. James Brophy, died at her home, in this city, on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock. The funeral will take place from St. Patrick's Church to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock.

Mr. T. J. NOLIN has favored the BULLETIN with a basket of shell oysters that were fat and fine. He has an extra good quality this season. He serves them at any hour, day or night, in the best style. Call and see him.

AN upright show case containing jewelry, on the side walk, in front of Mr. Hermann Lange's store, was upset yesterday evening and broken by a dog that reared up against it probably to admire the many handsome articles it contained.

A LITTLE son of Mr. Wesley Oder, of East Maysville, three years of age, was severely scalded on Monday. He was playing near a stove on which was a wash boiler, and, by some means, a piece of clothing fell from it across his neck. The injuries of the little fellow were very painful.

A COLORED man arrested in Bath County on the charge of burning a tobacco barn, confessed the crime but asserted that he was hired to do it by the owner. The insurance companies are cancelling their policies on the tobacco in that vicinity and refuse to take any more risks.

THE Frankfort Yeoman says: The mention of the name of Judge Garrett S. Wall, of Mason, for the U. S. District Attorneyship, should be well received. He is one of the staunchest and most active Democrats of his section of the State, and is, besides a competent lawyer and conscientious gentleman.

ACCORDING to a recent arrangement of the working girls of the city, in going to and from their work, are permitted to ride on the street cars for a fare of three cents. This is an act of liberality that is applied in the right direction. That class of workers earn scanty wages at best and will appreciate this concession made in their favor.

Candy Pulling.

The Baptist Sunday school will give the children a candy pulling to-night, in the dining room of the Hill House. The school is expected to assemble by a quarter past seven o'clock. A good time is expected by the little ones who have been looking forward for some time to the occasion.

MR. WILLIAM WISE, a former citizen of Maysville, died on Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. W. E. Sedden, near Stone Lick Church, this county, at the age of sixty-eight years. Mr. Wise was a good man and had many friends in the community who will regret to hear of his death. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning from the residence.

Let everybody go and worship the Prince of Peace in His church on the day of His Nativity.

FIRE AT CINCINNATI.

Bookstore Burned and Masonic Temple Badly Damaged.

[Special to DAILY BULLETIN.]

CINCINNATI, December 24.-J. R. Mills' bookstore was burned out this morning. The Masonic Temple is badly wrecked by fire and water. The entire fire department was necessary to stop the work of destruction.

The Beetle and the Flea.

If a one hundred and fifty pound man had strength in proportion to that of the beetle, he could lift nearly 200,000 pounds. If he were agile in proportion to the agility of the flea, he could leap over a three-story house. Some poor fellows are so feeble that they can neither lift nor leap. Their blood is poor, their digestion bad, and their energy gone. Give such men Brown's Iron Bitters, which will enrich their blood and tone them up gloriously.

How Frank Duffy, an Eight-Year Boy Gets $5,000.

Frank K. Duffy, an eight-year-old son of Thos. Duffy, dealer in gent's furnishing goods, purchased a one-fifth ticket in the November drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery Company, and received an express package containing $5,000 in cash. The number of the winning ticket was 13,023, and the whole prize was $25,000. A times reporter has verified the case of this Hartford boy. [Hartford, (Conn.) Times, November 29th.]

NESBITT & MCKRELL.

Card From James Hefflin.

It is being circulated with a view to injure me in my race for the office of Marshal of the City of Maysville, Ky., at the ensuing January election, that I am a defaulter to the Marshal of the United States, and that a jury in the Boyd Circuit Court held at Catlettsburg Ky., a few days ago found a verdict against me for $1,883, as defaulter while Deputy United States Marshal. I now, to relieve the minds of my friends and likewise to refute the slander of my enemies, I wish to make the following statement: On the - day of -, 188-, A. J. Auxier, United States Marshal of Kentucky, instituted suit against me to recover $2,296, claimed to be due from me to him, which I then denied and still deny. It is true the jury on the trial of said case a few days ago found a verdict against me and in favor of him for $1,883. I say that said verdict is wrong and was given contrary to the evidence in the case and the instructions of the court, and I further say that the court will grant a new trial in said case if it has not already done so, and that upon a re-hearing of the case I will demonstrate to the satisfaction of any unprejudiced mind that I am not only not indebted to the plaintiff in said suit in the sum of $-, or any other sum whatever, but that on the other hand that said plaintiff is indebted to me some hundreds of dollars. The article printed in the Enquirer of the 23rd inst. concerning me is a wilful misrepresentation and was evidently gotten up by my enemies in Boyd County, who are hostile to me on account of my connection with the Neal and Craft case. I ask my friends not to be misled by the false statements made. I append the following card from the gentlemen who are sureties on my official bond, and one of whom acted as attorney for me on the trial of the case. JAMES HEFLIN.

MAYSVILLE, December 23, 1884.

Mr. James Hefflin: We are satisfied that if your principal, the U. S. Marshal for the district of Kentucky, would credit you with the expenses actually incurred by you, to earn the large sum in fees, which you did earn, which could not have been otherwise earned, and then allow you the pay for your work which he admits to be proper, and you would not owe him a cent, but he would owe you several hundred dollars. All the money you ever drew from him, you expended it just as he authorized you to expend it in his own business, and we think he is justly in your debt. Very respectfully yours, W. H. WADSWORTH, THOMAS A. RESPERS.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, as flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosancho's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and affecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address the Dr. Bosancho Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by Geo T. Wood.
